

Oncology Clinics

We are here to support you and your loved ones on your cancer journey.

Our clinics provide care for individuals in the Northwest Territories (NWT), including the Kitikmeot Region of Nunavut (NU).

We listen to your concerns, ensure your voice is heard, and advocate for you throughout the process.

Our team, which includes registered nurses, oncologists, and a program assistant, is dedicated to supporting your cancer care needs at every stage.

Our Services

- Specialized cancer care.
- In-person and virtual oncology appointments.
- Education about your cancer diagnosis, treatment and survivorship.
- Nursing support on cancer medications, treatments and supportive care.
- Connections to local and virtual supports.

Oncology Clinics

Oncology Clinic Nurse

We are registered nurses (RN) with specialized training and experience in cancer care.

The RN will keep track of any symptom issues, psychosocial concerns and treatment/cancer related side effects you have using the Putting Patients First form.

This form is completed for each clinic visit before you talk to the oncologist, only you can tell us how you are feeling.

Important!

For In-Person Appointments at
Stanton Territorial Hospital
Ambulatory Care Centre (ACC)

- Check in with the ACC reception
- Consider bringing a support person with you to your appointment

Well-Being Check:

Nervous?

Worried about family?

Uncertain?

Ability to work?

Brain fog?

Tired and sleepy?

Eating less?

Body image?

Hopeless?

What happens next?

Before Your Appointment

Bring Your Medications

- If anything has changed, let the Registered Nurse (RN) know.
- Make a list of any questions you want to ask the nurse and/ or oncologist.

During Your Appointment

We're Here for You

- The RN will be with you when you have your appointment with the oncologist.

Ask Questions

- The nurse and oncologist will explain everything and answer your questions.

Well-Being Check

- We will use the Putting Patient First Form to see how your symptoms are affecting you and to find ways to help you feel better and improve your quality of life.

After Your Appointment

- If you have questions, call the oncology clinic nurse.
- We can arrange virtual visits if you need them.
